

Dear Reader,

Educare is a peer-reviewed journal published regularly at the Faculty of Education and Society, Malmö University, Sweden since 2005. Educare publishes a wide range of research in education and educational sciences and has long been considered a research forum for faculty, practitioners and policy makers in Sweden. The journal strives to be of relevance to these stakeholders not only through its choice of the published topics, but also through the clarity of presentation (see Author Guidelines). The journal accepts original submissions in Swedish, Danish, Norwegian and English. We welcome both experienced and young researchers to contribute to the journal. All articles are first reviewed by the editor-in-chief or the editorial board. In the next step, articles are subjected to a double-blind review by two external reviewers. All submissions are judged on the basis of their relevance from a professional and educational perspective, theoretical and methodological contribution, critical insights and rhetorical quality. The journal is currently registered in The Norwegian Register for Scientific Journals, Series and Publishers as a national peer-reviewed journal within the field of education and educational research with scientific level 1.

The current issue Aesthetics, Learning and Education, Part 2 consists of seven articles illuminating the subject from different perspectives and in different contexts. The guest editor is Ann-Mari Edström (<http://forskning.mah.se/id/luaned>), who introduces the subject area and the issue in the first article.

Sincerely,

Anna Wärnsby
